

WEDNESDAY 19th JUNE 5pm - 8pm

ANARCHY at the ABBEY 1138

TRAVEL BACK IN TIME ...

to a Living History event when England stood on the brink of Civil War between King Stephen and the Empress Matilda.

Meet a Falconer, a Jester, a Soldier, an Executioner, a Merchant's wife, an Archer, a Musician, a Story-teller - play our interactive anarchy game and/or solve the mystery of how Matilda escaped from Oxford Castle

ANARCHY AT THE ABBEY

History Comes Alive at Wymondham Abbey

It is MCXXXVIII *

Work on building the abbey church is almost finished...

...but the country is suffering civil war and anarchy!

Are you for KING Stephen or QUEEN Matilda?

(or frankly couldn't give a groat as long as you have pottage on your platter)

Bring the family to this special open evening for all ages & be transported back to 1138 presented by a company of jovial re-enactors, craftspeople, minstrel musicians and more

Meet herbalists, archers, falconers, soldiers and sundry curious characters from local lords & love-lorn ladies to swarthy serfs and villainous villeins

Bring your own picnic feast or purchase victuals on site

Hot and cold drinks

Plantagenet Pizzas

Ales on Tap

Wymondham Abbey NR18 0PH

Scan the code to get your tickets online

www.wymondhamabbey.org.uk/livinghistory

5pm – 8pm

Wednesday 19th June

Entry £5, Children Free